Online Training

Sustainability Requirements for Biocides

11 September 2026, Online

Sustainability requirements are reshaping the regulatory framework for biocidal products in the EU.

This compact training focuses on recent developments affecting the Biocidal Products Regulation (BPR), including the EU Omnibus simplification package, new assessment concepts, and the growing impact of cross-cutting EU legislation. It also addresses challenges such as stricter control of product claims and the increasing relevance of dual-use and borderline products.

Join us to stay ahead of regulatory change and ensure your compliance!

The Experts

Natalie Konings, Bird & Bird, Belgium
Claudio Mereu, Bird & Bird, Belgium

Learning Objectives

- Explore how sustainability policies are changing biocides regulation
- Understand key regulatory concepts and overlaps between regulations affecting the assessment and authorisation of biocidal products
- Anticipate compliance and strategic risks arising from horizontal sustainability legislation and product positioning

Welcome & Introduction

Omnibus Reform and Its Impact on the BPR

Overview of the EU Omnibus simplification package and implications for the Biocidal Products Regulation (BPR)

One Substance One Assessment (OSOA)

- Introduction of a Common Data Platform on Chemicals
- Streamlining assessments across EU agencies

Essential Use Concept

- Criteria and potential relevance for biocidal active substances
- Implications for authorisation and substitution

Evolution of Assessment Approaches

- Hazard-based vs. risk-based assessment
- Possible shifts in regulatory decision-making

Full Evaluation of the BPR (BPR REFIT)

Timeline and Process

- Key milestones and expected deliverables

Scope of the REFIT

- Data protection framework
- Opportunities for simplification and burden reduction

Impact on Guidance and Ancillary Regulations

- Revision of the Biocidal Product Family (BPF) concept
- Changes to:
 - Same Biocidal Products Regulation (EU) No 414/2013
 - Changes Regulation (EU) No 354/2013
- Consequences for applicants and authorisation strategies

Sustainability Legislation Affecting Biocidal Products

Packaging and Packaging Waste

- New EU obligations and interaction with BPR packaging requirements

Microplastics Restrictions

- Reporting obligations for biocidal products and treated articles
- Impact on formulation and compliance strategies

Drinking Water Framework Developments

- Regulatory updates and consequences for biocide use in water treatment

Green Claims and Environmental Marketing

- Increased scrutiny of environmental claims
- Requirements for:
 - Biodegradability claims
 - “Environmentally friendly” positioning
- Ensuring consistency between:
 - Regulatory approval
 - Product performance
 - Marketing communications

Dual-Use Products and Borderline Considerations

Growing importance of products positioned both as:

- Biocides
- Non-biocidal goods (e.g. cleaners, hygiene products, treated articles)

Regulatory Interactions

- BPR authorisation requirements vs. non-BPR frameworks

Key Risk Areas

- Product claims and presentation
- Intended use and classification
- Enforcement trends and authority scrutiny

The Organisers

For more than 30 years, Akademie Fresenius has been your partner for practice-orientated training on all the latest topics surrounding the safety and quality of food, consumer goods and chemical products along the whole production chain. Our portfolio not only includes international conferences but also offers national trade meetings, intensive practical seminars and training in small work groups.

Our events are designed to promote an active exchange amongst our participants and offer the perfect platform for bringing the industry, the scientific sector, the authorities and the consulting field together. Excellent service, all-inclusive. Our wide-ranging advanced training opportunities contribute to giving our customers the competitive edge in all quality assurance, risk assessment, legal, production and technical questions.

Akademie Fresenius is a joint venture between Carl Remigius Fresenius Education Group, one of the largest private and independent education groups in Germany, and SGS Institut Fresenius, one of the leading German providers of chemical laboratory analysis.

You can find details on upcoming and new events at www.akademie-fresenius.com
